The President is Missing
by Bill Clinton & James Patterson
Release Date: 6/4/2018

As the novel opens, a threat looms. Enemies are planning an attack of unprecedented scale on America. Uncertainty and fear grip Washington. There are whispers of cyberterror and espionage and a traitor in the cabinet. The President himself becomes a suspect, and then goes missing...

Us Against You
by Fredrik Backman
Release Date: 6/5/2018

After everything that the citizens of Beartown have gone through, they are struck yet another blow when they hear that their beloved local hockey team will soon be disbanded. Amidst the mounting tension between the two rivals, a surprising newcomer is handpicked to be Beartown's new hockey coach.

A Place for Us
by Fatima Farheen Mirza
Release Date: 6/12/2018

A deeply affecting and resonant story, A Place for Us is truly a book for our times: a moving portrait of what it means to be an American family today, a novel of love, identity and belonging that eloquently examines what it means to be both American and Muslim—and announces Fatima Farheen Mirza as a major new literary talent.

Witchmark
by C.L. Polk
Release Date: 6/19/2018

Magic marked Miles Singer for suffering the day he was born, doomed either to be enslaved to his family's interest or to be committed to a witches' asylum. He went to war to escape his destiny and came home a different man, but he couldn't leave his past behind.

Between You & Me
by Susan Wiggs
Release Date: 6/26/2018

Caught between two worlds, Caleb Stoltz is bound by a deathbed promise to raise his orphaned niece and nephew in Middle Grove, where life revolves around family, farm, faith. When disaster strikes, Caleb is thrust into an urban environment of high-tech medicine and the relentless rush of modern life.

Florida
by Lauren Groff
Release Date: 6/5/2018

The stories in this collection span characters, towns, decades, even centuries, but Florida—its landscape, climate, history, and state of mind—becomes its gravitational center: an energy, a mood, as much as a place of residence. Groff transports the reader, then jolts us alert with a crackle of wit, a wave of sadness, a flash of cruelty, as she writes about loneliness, rage, family, and the passage of time.

The Bookshop of Yesterdays
by Amy Meyerson
Release Date: 6/12/2018

Miranda Brooks grew up in the stacks of her Uncle Billy's bookstore, solving the scavenger hunts he created just for her. But on Miranda's twelfth birthday, Billy disappears from Miranda's life. She doesn't hear from him again until 16 years later when she receives unexpected news: Billy has died and left her Prospero Books, and one final scavenger hunt.

The Perfect Couple
by Elin Hilderbrand
Release Date: 6/19/2018

It's wedding season on Nantucket. The beautiful island is overrun with summer people. And that's not the only tension brewing offshore. When one lavish wedding ends in disaster before it can even begin—with the bride-to-be discovered dead in Nantucket Harbor just hours before the ceremony—everyone in the wedding party is suddenly a suspect.

Before and Again
by Barbara Delinsky
Release Date: 6/26/2018

Mackenzie Cooper took her eyes off the road for just a moment but the resulting collision was enough to rob her not only of her beloved daughter but ultimately of her marriage, family, and friends—and thanks to the nonstop media coverage, even her privacy.

The Cabin at the End of the World
by Paul Tremblay
Release Date: 6/26/2018

Seven-year-old Wen and her parents, Eric and Andrew, are vacationing at a remote cabin on a quiet New Hampshire lake. Their closest neighbors are more than two miles in either direction along a rutted dirt road. Thus begins a tale of paranoia, sacrifice, apocalypse, one in which the fate of a loving family and quite possibly all of humanity are entwined.
