The Ultimate Evil by Maury Terry

In 1977, the NYPD arrested David Berkowitz for the "Son of Sam" murders that had terrorized NYC for more than 13 months. Journalist Maury Terry was suspicious of Berkowitz's confession, convinced that Berkowitz did not act alone. Terry details the chilling events, proving that Berkowitz was a triggerman for a Satanic cult known as the Process Church of the Final Judgment, a far reaching organization that is connected to other ritual slayings across the country.

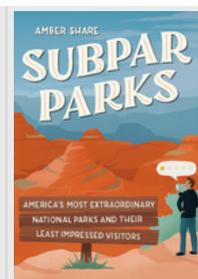

The Organic Dog Biscuit Cookbook by Cider Mill Pub

Now you don't have to worry about what you're feeding your dog with these simple, healthy organic dog treat recipes. This is the perfect present for new dog parents and pet lovers alike! Treat your dog right with recipes specially made with your dog's taste buds in mind.

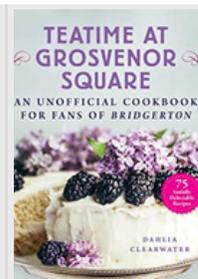

Pastels and Pedophiles by Mia Bloom

Mia Bloom and Sophia Moskalenko explain why the rise of QAnon should not surprise us: believers have been manipulated to follow the baseless conspiracy. The authors track QAnon's unexpected leap from the darkest corners of the Internet to the filtered glow of yogi-mama Instagram, a frenzy fed by the COVID-19 pandemic that supercharged conspiracy theories & spurred a fresh wave of Q-inspired violence.

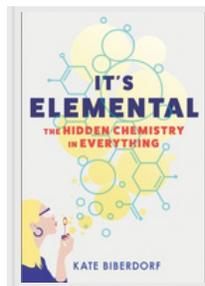

Subpar Parks: America's Most Extraordinary National Parks and Their Least Impressed Visitors

Based on the wildly popular Instagram account, Subpar Parks features both the greatest hits and brand-new content, all celebrating the incredible beauty and variety of America's national parks juxtaposed with the clueless and hilarious one-star reviews posted by visitors

Teatime at Grosvenor Square by Dahlia Clearwater

Delightful food and drink recipes inspired by Netflix's hit show Bridgerton and Julia Quinn's bestselling novels. Finger sandwiches, pastries, roasts, desserts, cocktails, and more! Now you can create a spread of delicate finger sandwiches, captivating canapés, and bite-sized sweets scrumptious enough to impress Queen Charlotte herself! Plus, you'll find a few recipes worthy of a Bridgerton family supper.

It's Elemental: The Hidden Chemistry of Everything by Kate Biberdorf

In this practical pop science book, a scientist dubbed "the Cooler Bill Nye" looks at how we experience chemistry every day, answering questions such as what makes dough rise and how coffee gives us an energy boost.

The Comfort Book by Matt Haig

Years ago, Matt Haig began writing notes to his future self. These notes were meant as gifts to his future self: offerings of hope to help himself through anything from the darkest periods of his life to a not-so-great day. As time went on, he added new thoughts and stories, and he turned them into The Comfort Book so that everyone could draw on this well of reassurance.

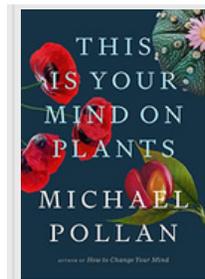

Easy Crafts for the Insane by Kelly Williams Brown

In Easy Crafts for the Insane, crafting tutorials serve as the backdrop of a life dissolved, then glued back together. Surprising, humane, & utterly unforgettable, this is a poignant and hysterical look at the unexpected, messy coping mechanisms we use to find ourselves again.

Until Proven Safe: The History and Future of Quarantine by Geoff Manaugh and Nicola Twilley

Journalists Geoff Manaugh and Nicola Twilley explore the history and future of quarantine, from the Black Death to Big Data

This is Your Mind on Plants by Michael Pollan

Michael Pollan dives deep into 3 plant drugs (opium, caffeine, & mescaline) & throws the fundamental strangeness, & arbitrariness, of our thinking about them into sharp relief. Exploring and participating in the cultures that have grown up around these drugs while consuming (or, in the case of caffeine, trying not to consume) them, Pollan reckons with the powerful human attraction to psychoactive plants.
